CASES CONTINUED.

Because the plaintiff declared he was accustomed to do mental work in a recumbent position and sitting upright in a witness chair had fatigued him, the case of John Armstrong Chanler, who is fighting for legal establishment of his sanity and recovery of a fortune he claims was wrested from him in New York, was yesterday at Charlottesville, continued until Monday, November 30.

The hearing has been going on several days. Mr. Chanler said he desired a rest after three days of mental strain on the witness stand and this was agreed upon at a conference of lawyers.

Joseph H. Choate, jr., counsel for Thomas T. Sherman, Chanler's sanity "committee," against whom Chanler brought the suit, left yesterday for New York after appointing local lawyers to look after Sherman's interests.

The story of how he cut off his French beard because Amelie Rives had refused him and what he characterized as illbred conduct toward him by members of the Knickerbocker Club, of New York, including Stanford White, Sculptor St Gaudens and others were brought out in the testimony last Saturday. Chanler testified in the legal proceedings to establish his sanity and recover a fortune he alleges was wrested from him in New York.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THE STOLEN LETTER.

The John D. Archbold Standard Oil letters, which William R. Hearst has presented to the public during the present campaign, were stolen from the Archbold files by a negro in Mr. Archbold's office and sold by him to the Hearst papers through a white man, a confidential messenger of the Standard Oil Company, according to an article in Collier's Weekly for October 24. The negro and the white man are said to have made a trafic over $12,000 out of transaction.

The white man, in his interview with the writer for Colliers, hints that the best of the letters are yet to be used—and that these which have been held in reserve have to do with Senator Aldrich and Senator Penrose.

One of the men who it is alleged got the letters for Mr. Hearst is William W Winfield, colored, file clerk, messenger and doortender in Mr. Archbold's office and stepson of Mr. Archbold's negro butler, James N. Wilkens, who has been in Mr. Archbold's family for 30 years. Winfield had been in the Standard Oil office 10 years, when he was dropped in 1905.

The other man was Charles Stump, white, in the Standard Oil office for six years, when he, too, was dropped in 1905.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

COLD WAVE.

A storm accompanied by rain which changed frequently to snow has prevailed throughout the northern section of Colorado for nearly 48 hours. In sections of the mountains heavy snow has fallen. Considerable damage was done to the electric wires and telephone and telegraph wires are seriously affected. Railroad and interurban electric lines have been interrupted and at places completely blocked.

Several accidents and at least one death have resulted from persons coming in contact with broken wires.

Six accidential deaths are traceable to the snow. Besides seven persons sustained serious injuries in railroad collisions and in coming in contact with live wires.

A cold wave has added misery to the 2,000 people of northern Michigan made homeless by forest fires. The thermometer dropped 20 degrees since yesterday morning.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Company and Richard Gibson.

BILLIK TO HANG.

The refusal yesterday of the U. S. Supreme Court to act in the case of Herman Billik, of Chicago, brings to an end one of the most notable struggles ever made in the history of American jurisprudence to save the life of a condemned man. Billik, indicted two years ago for the murder of five members of the Vzral family, was tried on one indictment and convicted of the murder Mary Vzral. Sentence of the court was that he should hang. Billik was without money and for a time it seemed that the sentence of the court must be carried out because of the lack of funds to carry the case to a higher court. Billik had not been in his cell many weeks when Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, of the Paulist Fathers, after a visit to the prisoner, became convince of the latter's innocence and began a fight for his release. Mass meetings were held at the instigation of the priest and funds were collected with which to carry the case to the Supreme Court of Illinois. Governor Deneen granted a reprieve, which saved Billik from the gallows pending a decision by the Supreme Court.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Only a few moments after Edward McDonald had died from a bullet wound at his father's home, in New York, nineteen-year-old Nellie Walsh Waldron, of Flushing, who says the dead man had wronged her, yesterday afternoon rushed to the Greenpoint ferry and leaped into the East river. She was quickly rescued. The young woman, who had sought death soon after her former sweetheart died, was raving as she was hurried to the Eastern District Hospital. She told the authorities that McDonald shot himself in her presence. The girl said she went to McDonald yesterday to tell him she would kill herself if he didn't marry her. She said she took a revolver along. At the house she found him alone. When she tried to carry out her threat, she said, he snatched the revolver from her hand and fired a shot into his own brain.

A report received in London from Rome today says that Emperor Menelik of Abyssinia is dead and that warfare has started over the successorship.

The chronicles of marine disaster due to the great East Indian hurricane were increased again today when the crew of 22 of the British steamer Hesleyside were brought into New York by the steamer Kenaca. The Hesleyside was driven ashore at Abaco, October 1, a total loss.

FINE LARGE PRUNES 10c and 15c per pound at J. C. MILBURN'S.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 20, 1908.

THE prairie fires now prevailing in the northwest are leaving death and destruction in their wake. Prairie and forest fires have been numerous during the present year. From July 12 to August 2 fires raged in Crows Nest district in British Columbia, loss, $20,000,000; dead, 70; homeless, 10,000. From August 16 to September 6 northeastern Minnesota and northern Wisconsin were visited by prairie fires; loss, $6,000,000; dead, 12; homeless, 12,000. From August 16 to September 8 the Minnesota copper country suffered by fire; loss, $5 000,000; dead, 30; homeless, 5,000. From September 1 to September 7 Blackwood Hills, South Dakota, were devastated by fire; loss, $2,000,000. From September 1 to September 8 Michigan peninsula suffered a loss by fire of $3,000,000. From September 12 to September 19 Greenville district, Pennsylvania, was the scene of a terrible fire; loss, $1,000,000. From September 1 to September 19 Adirondacks and Essex, Warren and Saratoga counties, New York, suffered from forest fires; loss, $2,000,000; dead, 8. From Sep 2 to 20 southwestern Pennsylvania, southeastern Ohio and West Virginia were visited by fires; loss, $2,000,000.

THE announcement is made in the republican papers that "Secretary of War Luke Wright, a "Tennessee democrat," cannot support Mr. Bryan. It could have been added, nor would he have supported Governor Johnson, Judge Gray or any other democrat, but would have taken the stump for Taft just the same. If Secretary Wright has been a democrat at any time for the past twelve years it would be news if told to his former political associates. Men do not become suddenly wicked, and the secretary has been in Roosevelt's employ for years—first sent to the Philippines, then made the first ambassador from this country to Japan and later brought home to be made secretary of war in July last when Mr. Taft resigned. It is a safe bet that Secretary Wright is less tolerant of his late democratic brethern, than are his Cabinet associates of the democratic party. Secretary Wright a democrat! Well, hardly.

TO AN impartial observer, two weeks before election day, it looks very like Bryan will be elected by a landslide and this Chairman Mack, of the national democratic committee, predicts. The correspondents of republican newspapers in the middle west, after a careful survey of that territory, admit that Bryan will carry enough of those states without New York and they believe he has a better chance for the Empire state than Taft The republicans have not the campaign fund necessary to buy the election. It will take more than $10,000,000, which they had in 1896, to buy this election.

RECENT reports of the commercial agencies show that 8 per cent. of the failures since the panic conditions began to be felt had a capital of $5,000 or less and that 11 per cent. were capitalized at from $5,000 to $20,000. The failures for nine months are greater than in any corresponding period since 1893. The failures for the first nine months of this year number 10,691, with liabilities aggregating $244,885,000. This is an increase of 55 per cent. in the number and of 110 per cent. in the total liabilities as compared with the first nine months of 1907.

CAPT. JACK S. WISE, formerly of Virginia, but now of New York, and Gen. Luke Wright, formerly of Tennessee, but now Secretary of State in Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet, will make a number of speeches in Virginia this month in favor of Mr. Taft and against the democratic party of which they were both at one time partizan members. Should they meet in Virginia they will have an opportunity of exchanging views concerning "apostates for the price of their apostasy."

COUNT LEO TOLSTOY, the great Russian Commoner, has written a letter in which he says: "I sincerely wish Mr. Bryan success in his candidature. Mr. Bryan I greatly respect and sympathize with and know that the basis of his activity is kindred to mine in his sympathies to the interests of the working masses."

JUDGE WOOD, of the Mississippi Chancery Court, has declared unconstitutional the recent act of the legislature which penalizes railroads which remove causes from the state to the federal courts. No other just decision could have been rendered. The constitution guarantees the right of men to protect their interests.

CHAIRMAN MACK, of the democratic national committee, has issued a statement containing a list of thirty-eight big corporations with which George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the republican national committee, is connected officially, but Mr. Sheldon continues to "stand-pat."

SECRETARY OF WAR LUKE WRIGHT, in his first important speech delivered before a New York audience in his campaigning tour, told an audience last night that Mr. Roosevelt was no hired man, but a ruler, in many respects one of the greatest in the world. Mr. Bryan should be reprimanded, said Gen. Wright, for calling a man who controls so much of the power of the government a mere hired man. But who's hired-man is Gen. Wright?

WHAT a spectacle the republican party is presenting to the American people in refusing to make known the names and amounts of their campaign contributions. Its to be expected that Mr. Taft will, like Mr. Roosevelt, deny that his party has received contributions from trusts. But will the American people be duped again? We believe not if they keep in mind the Harriman-Roosevelt letter in which the latter said "we are both practical men."

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, Oct. 20.

Miguel De La Torre, treasurer of the fiscal zone of Havana has rifled the safe in the Treasury Department of $195,000, according to a cablegram received at the War Department from Governor Magoon at Havana. The treasurer was arrested and confessed his guilt.

It is understood that President Roosevelt has under consideration the preparation of a statement setting forth what business connections, if any, he has made with the "Outlook" of New York. There is very little doubt that the president has accepted an editorial position with that magazine, presumably to take effect after his retirement on March 4 but not be in active force until after he returns from his proposed African trip. It was announced at the White House this afternoon, in response to an inquiry, that Elbert T. Balkin, connected with the Outlook magazine had conferred with the president today. It is understood that Baldwin is the managing editor.

The government is losing no time in taking up the investigation into the alleged dereliction of District Attorney Dunkle in pushing the prosecution of J. B. F. Rinehart, former cashier of the defunct Farmers' and Drovers' National Bank of Waynesburg, Pa. Two skilled experts of the Department of Justice—Assistant Attorney E. W. Lawrence and S. W. Finch, chief of the examining force, have been instructed to make a rapid but thorough inquiry into the case and report without delay. President Roosevelt's desire is to establish the innocence or guilt of prominent men who, it is charged, benefited by the alleged looting of the bank for political purposes District Attorney Dunkle has wired the Department of Justice that although two years have elapsed since the indictment was returned against Rinehart he has been active in pushing the prosecution, but has met stumbling blocks in the way of legal technicalities. Among other things he charges that the bank examiner who investigated the case has been so busy with other matters that he could not give his attention to the pending case. Attorney General Bonaparte reported to the cabinet meeting today the action already taken by his department.

A broken oil pipe today converted the old James creek canal into a lake of fire and for a time threatened great damage.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.

Elkins, W. Va. was yesterday chosen as the place and October 14 as the time or next year's meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia. An overture, received from Montgomery Presbytery, asking that the date of meeting be changed to the first Tuesday in December was voted down. Danville, Va., and Elkins, W. Va., were the only candidates for the one hundred and twenty-second session of the Synod.

The committee to which the matter was referred made the following nominations to fill vacancies on the board of trustees of the Orphans' Home at Lynchburg, and these men were unanimously elected: Isaac T. Mann, Bramwell, W. Va.; W. H. Mann, Nottoway, Va.; J. Hoge Tyler East Radford, Va.; Rev. E. T Wellford, Newport News, Va.; Richard Hancock, Lynchburg, Va., and Rev. A. M. Frazer, Staunton, Va.

VIRGINIA RATE CASE.

The Virginia rate case was among the first on the U. S. Supreme Court docket yesterday morning. Both sides of the case were given an opportunity to present their interpretation of the law. United States Senator John W. Daniel, counsel for the State, opened the argument. He had a half hour, having spoken that length of time on Friday, after which the case was carried over until today. Following Major Daniel, John J. I. Durrand, of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and Mr. Thom, of the Southern, argued for the railroads.

Both sides presented the same argument as was made before Judge Pritchard—the unconstitutionality of the injunction as issued by Judge Pritchard, and the legality of the commission as a court.

The case will terminate today. A. C. Braxton, of Virginia, will close the argument for the state, and Mr. Thom will close for the railroads.

WONT MARRY CONSUMPTIVES.

"I will never again marry a consumptive and I will not wed a man whose income is less than $12 a week" are two declarations by Rev. Herbert Johnson, of Boston which are today the subject of concern among local pastors. Dr. Johnson declares it time that the church should take a stand in these matters. "Laws admittedly are unable to cope with the conditions created dy the marriage of consumptives and almost—paupers," he said. "Therefore, it remains for the church to take a stand that will combat the evils resulting from the mating of a consumptive to a healthful person, and from the too rash entrance into martrimony of those who are not financially able to meet the responsibilities of that condition."

Robbed Bank.

Herrin, Ills,, Oct. 20.—Engaging practically the whole male population of the little village in a street fight, holding the towns people at bay with a revolver, while a companion inside calmly blew open and looted the safe a gang of yeggmen robbed the bank at Hurst, a mining town near here, today and escaped with booty estimated at $1,600. A posse of citizens is pursuing the yeggs across the country. No one was hurt.

Mrs. Jacob Ambosch, 50 years old, of Norfolk, was attacked and beaten at Moseley and Chapel streets Saturday night by an unknown negro, who escaped with her pocketbook.

Japan extended a great welcome to the American fleet, ten thousand Japanese children singing "America" as Admiral Sperry and officers entered Tokio.

Judge Taft went to Baltimore on his special train yesterday and addressed a mass meeting at the Lyric last night, and was given an enthusiastic welcome. He discussed the labor question and other issues of the campaign.

"I am sorry to live. I wanted the bicycle awful bad but I stole money and must die." A scrap of paper with these words scrawled on it was found pinned to the coat of little 12-year-old John Arthur Hilton who committed suicide in Atlanta, Ga. yesterday morning by drinking carbolic acid. He had taken $25 belonging to his father with which he bought a bicycle. Just before the suicide he had been told by his family that he was a thief and would come to some bad end.

The future of Mr. Bryan's trip through his native State of Illinois yesterday which ended in Chicago last night, was the accusation, repeatedly made, that the republican party was now preparing to purchase the election. The statement was first made at Alton. The democrats, he said, were asking only for $100,000 with which to finish the work of the campaign, while the republicans were asking for a million." "What do they need the money for now?" he inquired, and answering his own question, he declared that it was for use on election day, "as they have used it year after year."

Unaware Husband is Dead.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—Unaware that Gus Rogers is dead, Maude Raymond, the actress and wife of the comedian, is speeding to New York today under the impression that he is only very ill. Mrs. Rogers, who is a member of the Eddie Foy Company, came here from her husband's bedside Monday morning, and when she entered the Fort Pitt Hotel was handed a telegram saying that her husband's condition had changed for the worse Rogers died several hours later. She caught the "Pittsburg Special" last night for New York, her part in "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway" being taken by an understudy.

Today's Telegraphic News

Under Suspicion.

[Special dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Oct. 20.—Political commotion was caused here today by the rumor that two members of Governor Swanson's staff were talking for Taft and would vote the republican ticket. The charge was aired at last night's meeting of the Bryan, Kern and Lamb Club's executive committee which was held behind closed doors. W. J. Payne, one of the colonels under suspicion, is quoted as having said today most emphatically that he would support Bryan. Col. Scott Paris, the member of the staff under democratic suspicion, sat on the platform with the Taft reception committee at Saturday night's meeting. No expression has been gotten from him today as to his attitude.

The Balkan Situation.

Constantinople, Oct. 20.—Suspected of being connected with the growing reactionary movement, the sultan is today in grave danger of being deposed.

The Turkish cabinet is now in session, and one of the questions that is reported to be up for consideration is the declaration of a military dictatorship as a means of combating the reactionists.

If the dictatorship is declared, it will last until Parliament meets, when it is expected that the situation can be relieved without trouble.

Some of the sultan's accusers charge him with being the moving spirit of the reactionary plots, while others believe him to be only the tool of more designing politicians.

Messages received today from the Turkish representatives sent to Sofia to negotiate a settlement of the Turko-Bulgarian dispute say that Czar Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, is in a conciliatory mood, and that there is every indication that the conference will succeed.

The Bulgarian cabinet, however, is known to be inclined to war, and Turkey is continuing quietly her preparations for war.

A dispatch from Belgrade says that Servia has released a number of suspected Austrian spies and sent them back to Austria, being forced to this action by the threat of a bombardment from the Austrian gunboats that are lying in the Danube close to the Servian capital.

London, Oct. 20.—With actual negotiations now on between Turkey and Bulgaria, and Austria's readiness to treat with Turkey over the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, as confirmed today at the foreign office, the proposed Balkan conference becomes a matter of small moment and it is even possible that it will not be called.

The most that the conference will be called upon to do, English diplomats believe, will be to ratify the conclusions of the triangular conference.

The Balkan situation generally is so much eased that war is believed to be only a remote possibility.

Whale Chases Anglers.

Atlantic City, Oct. 20.—After laboring frantically with an engine that refused to work while a whale not less than 80 feet in length spouted a few hundred yards from them, Henry S. Skull, democratic nominee for Sheriff; John A. Burgan, candidate for Assembly, and a terrorized party of friends made a flying run into Great Egg Harbor Inlet Saturday night. The leviathan was encountered 12 miles off Ocean City, its approach being heralded by the disappearance of schools of fish which had furnished wonderful sport for the party. The whale circled around the boat at a radius of half a mile while the fishermen wrestled with their engine, and followed lazily in their wake when the little steamer J. A. Reid, Captain Japhet Townsend, finally got under way for a straightaway dash for the shore. No one on board the flying craft felt safe until the Reid had threaded the shoals at the entrance to Great Egg Harbor Inlet, although the whale apparently gave up the chase five miles off shore.

Four Men Rescued from Motor Boat

New York, Oct. 20.—Lost in fog and smoke from forest fires, which is hanging heavy along the Atlantic coast, four men who were drifting in the water-logged motor boat Margie are today on the pilot boat New Jersey after as narrow an escape is has been recorded in marine annals for months. The four, William Walsh, William White, J. Hawkins and J. Murray, all of Brooklyn, were picked up six miles off Sandy Hook. Their craft was full of water and the men were almost dead from exhaustion. Blinded by the smoke they had lost all sense of direction and were waiting for death, when the pilot boat loomed through the haze. So rough was the sea that it was hours before the men could be landed.

Three Thousand Chinese Perish.

Amoy, Oct. 20.—Nearly 3,000 Chinese lost their lives in Thursday's typhoon, according to reports received today. The death list in Chang-Chow is placed at 1,100, in Lem-Cheng 1,300 and in villages north of Chang-Chow, 500.

The work of rehabilitating this city for the reception of the American fleet is progressing rapidly, and it will present a gala appearance.

Commissioner Mark today received a message of sympathy from Admirals Emery and Sperry, over the havoc wrought by the storm.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

New York, Oct. 20.—Attempted murder and a suicide at sea marked the voyage of the liner Kroonland which docked here today from Antwerp and Dover. On October 11 H. Muller, a steerage passenger, quarrelled with another and in the fracas stabbed his antagonist. Muller then leaped overboard. The big liner was quickly hove to and a boat was lowered, but after a long search returned to the ship without having found trace of the suicide.

Cruisers to Escort Duke.

Rome, Oct. 20.—The ministry of marine today ordered the Italian cruisers Piermosca, now at New York, and the Etruria, in south African waters, to act as an escort for the Duke of the Abruzzi when he sails for America after his marriage to Miss Katherine Elkins. The action virtually amounts to an official announcement of the engagement of the duke and Miss Elkins. It was announced today that the duke and his bride will sail for Italy on the cruiser Europa which will be fitted out in royal fashion. The duke will sail from Italy for America early next month, and it is understood the marriage will take place at the Elkins home in West Virginia early in December. The king's wedding gift will be a $100,000 tiara.

Graft of Cuban Money.

Havana, Oct. 20.—Details of the third huge graft of Cuban public moneys within the last two months are coming to light today in the investigation of the affairs of Miguel de La Torre, treasurer of the fiscal zone of Havana. De La Torre is charged with rifling the safe of the treasury department of close to $200,000. He is under arrest but refuses to state what has become of the money. De La Torre's alleged theft following those of Senor Rodriguez from the postoffice department two months ago, and the subsequent thieving discovered in the department of education have aroused the people and they are demanding that Gov. Magoon institute a thorough investigation of every public office. De La Torre's accounts were found to be in good condition when examined last June. He has been treasurer for 25 years and had always been considered a man of wealth and unquestioned character.

After being sweated by the police De La Torre confessed the thefts but refused to disclose the hiding place of the money. It is believed that one of his relatives acted as his confederate. De La Torre threw a bomb into the palace of General Weyler, the Spanish commander, during the exciting days preceding the Spanish-American war.

Brilliant Reception

Tokio, Oct. 20,—The reception given by the emperor to Admirals Sperry, Wainwright, Schroeder and Emery, the fleet captains and the chief of staff and flag lieutenants of the U. S. navy, was a brilliant affair. The admirals were presented to the mikado by Ambassador O'Brien and Admiral Sperry presented a message of good will from President Roosevelt which deeply affected the emperor. With a few introductory remarks the emperor made a formal reply to the president's message in which he expressed the same deep interest for continued friendship of the two nations. The imperial reception was the most brilliant affair seen in Japan in years, the gold braid of the naval men and the magnificent robes of the Japanese making the scene appear more like a stage picture than an epochal meeting between the represent tives of two rival nations.

The reception to be given tomorrow at the Imperial Garden will be the first time the Garden has been thrown open to the public since the return of the war with Russia. The Japanese press today comments on the interchange of friendly sentiments and urges the two nations to come to a perfectly honest understanding with respect to their relation and spheres. The press laments the occasional expression of either nation having ulperior motives.

Attempted Suicide.

Pittsburg, Oct. 20.—With two self inflicted bullet wounds in his abdomen, Jere Compton Councell, aged 28, formerly of St. Louis, is dying today at the homeopathic hospital. Last night Councell called up Miss Florence Warman and told her to hold the line open for a minute and she would hear something. When the two pistol shots fired in rapid succession came over the wire Miss Warman called up C. H Gartner, head of a local detective agency, by whom Councell had been employed, and told something had happened at his office. Delirious from his wound Councell declared to the police that he had been shot by Gartner, and the latter was arrested. Several hours later Councell regained consciousness and confessed that he had shot himself.

Mr. Bryan in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—William Jennings Bryan left here for Indiana early today. Prior to his departure it was stated that the democratic managers are trying to involve Roosevelt in another debate with Bryan, and that during his coming trip the Nebraskan will fire a few broadsides, trusting that the president will "come back." Bryan's reception in Chicago last night was made the occasion of a repetition of the rip-roaring, old fashioned campaign methods, with red fire, roman candles, transparancies, banners, parades and cheering crowds. In the half hour between the time Bryan arrived and the time he made his speech as much enthusiasm was aroused and worked off as has been in evidence in Chicago during the whole campaign. Bryan speaks at Evansville, Ind., tonight, going to Louisville tomorrow.

Trial of the Hains Brothers.

New York, Oct. 20.—Captain Peter C. Hains, who shot and instantly killed William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club last August and his brother T. Jenkins Hains, were arraigned today before Justice Garretson in the Supreme Court at Flushing, L. I. Handcuffed to sheriff, the prisoners were brought separately to the courthouse. It is believed the state will work more directly for the conviction of Jenkins Hains than for the conviction of Captain Hains, who will be shown, if possible to have been incited to the act by his brother and aided therein by him.

Aldrich Defiant.

New York, Oct. 20.—Scoffing at intimations that William R. Hearst has letters which will show that he is an emissary of Standard Oil, Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, arrived today from Europe on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie. At first Senator Aldrich was inclined to deny that such letters from himself to John D. Archbold were in existence. Later, however, he modified his attitude. "If any one," he said, "has any letters from or to me that they think would be of interest to the public, they may go ahead and publish them. Let them go as far as they like."

Trunk Factory Destroyed.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 20.—The trunk factory here of L. Goldsmith & Son, at Canal and Cherry streets, was gutted by a fire today. Several adjoining buildings were damaged by the flames. Taree dwellings about five blocks from the Goldsmith plant caught fire from flying embers and were damaged to the extent of $2,000.

Chased by A Panther.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 20.—With a panther splitting the stillness of the night with its terrifying cries running lightly at their heels, Mrs. H. A. Hevenry, wife of the assistant principal of the Central Grammar School, and her son, Leo, Sunday night ran half a mile along a lonely mountain road to their cottage, a mile from Spruce creek, to escape, fearing every moment the beast would spring on one or the other.

Bishop Potter's Remains Interred.

New York, Oct. 20.—In front of the communion rail of the Crypt Chapel in the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, all that was mortal of Bishop Henry C. Potter was laid to rest today. A simple stone marked the spot. Before interment, simple services were held at Grace Church and at the Cathedral. Those who attended included many prominent Episcopalians of New York and well known men of affairs. Fourteen clergymen and fourteen laymen were the pallbearers. Those who officiated at the Grace Church services were Bishops Greer, of New York; Lawrence, of Massachusetts; McVickar, of Rhode Island; Hare, of South Dakota, and Mackay-Smith, of Pennsylvania. The final service at the Cathedral was pronounced by Bishop Greer.

Among the pallbearers included such names as J. Pierpont Morgan, John Jacob Astor, and J. R. Roosevelt.

Forest Fires.

Wellsville, N. Y. Oct. 20.—Forest fires broke out here with renewed force, and this morning the hills are alike in several directions today a wind blew the smoke directly down on the town, and the darkness of midnight prevailed for a short time. The fires have such a start that nothing but a day's rain will extinguish them. Forest fires covering many miles of territory are raging in the vicinity of Genesee, Pa., 12 miles from this village and just over the Pennsylvania line large forces of men are fighting the flames. Today the fire is reported within 500 feet of several large oil tanks.

Berlin, N. H. Oct. 20 —Fifteen hundred acres of wood land have already been burned over by the forest fires raging in four different localities today about Berlin. The northern end of the state is almost in darkness from the smoke. Farmers in the Androscoggin valley are carrying their household goods to places of safety. Unless a rain comes soon some of the most magnificent scene in the granite state will be laid to waste.

The Thaw Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—Judge Young, in the federal court today quashing the writ of habeas corpus against Superintendent Lamb of the Matteawan Hospital for the criminal insane, New York, and dismissing the petition to bring Harry K. Thaw to Pittsburg to testify in his voluntary bankruptcy proceedings. Judge Young based his opinion on the grounds that Thaw's testimony can be taken by deposition.

THE ANT.

Facts About One of Natures Most Industrious Creatures.

When spring comes with all its wealth of opening buds and new flowers, the ant is preparing for a season of profitable industry.

It comes out of its winter quarters and locates a new home where it can store away, during the summer months, the sustenance for the long winter days.

Just as industrious as the ant—but in a different way, are the countless—infinitesimal germs which burrow into the scalp and eat away at the roots of the hair.

As they burrow away Dandruff forms, and if the germs are not all killed, Baldness results.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known remedy which kills the germs.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 108

Eats 200 Oysters.

Burlington, N. J, Oct. 20.—To win a cash wager that would enable him to buy a meal, a strange negro ate 200 raw oysters within an hour at a restaurant here yesterday. A crowd which watched the stunt cheered when the negro walked away with the money.

"I guess that will do for supper," said the winner of the strange bet, "so I'll just keep the cash for tomorrow's grub."

DISCHARGED PISTOL IN WATER BUCKET.

Charles Sevec, of Cleveland, O., is alive and well today, but if he had not first tested the ability of a bullet to tear things open, on a bucket of water, it is possible that he might be among those in other lands. Sevec's wife has been appearing in a Hungarian version of "Romeo and Juliet," to which Sevec voiced serious objections and he last night attended the performance. Sevec approached the footlights and instructed his wife "to come out of it." She hesitated long enough to tell Sevec that she was just getting Romeo roped in right and was going to stick it out. Sevec left and told one of his friends he was going to kill himself. There were three muffled shots heard in the cellar. The friend rushed to the cellar expecting to find Sevec's dead body but instead a leaky water bucket told where the bullets had landed. Sevec did not have the heart to turn the gun on himself after he saw the effect it had on the bucket.

SAUSAGE FACTORY.

If one would travel the entire country he would scarcely find a factory for the manufacture of sausage for the size of it the equal to that of Aaron Odell the butcher, located on north Washington street. He will slaughter nothing but the best meat, using every precaution to protect the public and his own reputation. He employs none but the best mechanics in this line and pays them well. His factory is as clean as a parlor and the machinery is of the latest improved, making the sausage meat turned out the superior of any bought from out-of-town factories and sold in this market. A pound or two of them will convince you that every word contained in this article is true. Visit his stalls at the Fairfax street end of the city market.

INDIAN SUMMER.

The weather for the past week or more has been very like that of Indian summer but the weatherwise contend that that delightful season does not come till November. Jockey's Tricks.

"There are tricks of two kinds in jockeying," said a jockey, "the legitimate and the illegitimate. Use the first and you'll prosper. Use the last and it's all up.

"Illegitimate tricks are pulling a race and getting left at the post. If you once pull a fast horse and make him lose, you are always afterward an object of suspicion, and ten to one if you ever pull another horse you are done for. But getting yourself left at the post is a big and complex subject, and it is the one trick that a clever jockey can work time and again with safety.

"To cause a rival horse to swerve is an illegitimate trick that often wins your race. You cause the swerving by straightening out your leg so that your heel nearly touches the other horse's nose, or you make a wide slash with your whip so that it nearly touches the other horse's eyes.

"The legitimate tricks are— But why give them away when it has taken all my life to learn them?"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

We Work Too Hard.

Lady Headfort during her American tour said in New York that she approved of international marriages.

"They correct us," she explained. "Our Englishmen work too little, your American men work too much, and the international marriage tends to bring about a happy mean. Your men do work too much, you know," said Lady Headfort. "I have an English friend who attended the funeral of one of your hardest workers, a multimillionaire. My friend's wife said rather bitterly to him at the funeral:

"'How you have missed your opportunities, my love! Place yourself beside Mr. Ritch there. You are both of the same age. You both began life together. Yet you are a poor man, while he died a multimillionaire.'

"'Yes,' said the English husband. 'There Ritch lies, dead of nervous prostration, without one single penny in his pocket, and here I stand, hale and hearty, with a wallet in my coat containing quite a hundred dollars.'"

Talismans in Malta.

There are still to be found in Malta a number of small stones shaped and colored like the eyes, tongues and other parts of serpents.

The superstitious among the Maltese connect these with the tradition that St. Paul when shipwrecked was cast on their island and that it was there that while lighting a bundle of sticks for a fire a viper fastened on the apostle's hand. St. Paul calmly shook the reptile off into the flames, and no harm followed. The natives wear these stones as talismans, in which character they suppose them serviceable in warding off dangers from snake bites and poisons.

They are found in St. Paul's cave imbedded in clay and are set in rings and bracelets and when found to be in the shape of a tongue or liver or heart are hung around the neck. They are also taken internally, dissolved in wine, which method is attended, according to some people, by more immediate results.

Blessings.

She was the daughter of the village physician, a sunny curled darling of six, whose big blue eyes rested on the face of the Sunday school teacher with an attention and intelligence most encouraging.

So when, after a discourse to the children on the beauty of appreciating their blessings, the teacher asked for an explanation of a blessing the doctor's little daughter rose and said:

"If my papa was to have a patient and she was to get well, and she was to pay my papa, and my papa was to give the money to my mamma, and my mamma was to buy me a new dress and take me down to the vacant lot and let me ride the great big fierce lion on the merry-go-round, that would be a blessing."—Woman's Home Companion.

A Witty Reply.

A witty but not overindustrious Celt was one of a street gang. A few minutes before noon one day he threw his shovel into the gutter, sat down on the curbstone and proceeded to light his pipe. Just then the superintendent of streets came round a corner and, seeing Pat, roared out:

"Here! What are you throwing down your shovel for at this time of day?"

"To cool it, sorr," said Pat.

Wasted Opportunities.

"How did you like my talk last night?" asked the beginner in the lecture field.

"Well," replied the candid critic, "you didn't take advantage of your many opportunities."

"I didn't?"

"No; you had a number of opportunities to quit before you did."—Philadelphia Press.

Declined In Rebuttal.

Authoress (of the budding variety)—I got level with the editor last night. He always rejects my manuscripts. But I have had my revenge. Friend—How did you do it? Authoress—I declined his son with thanks.—Pick-Me-Up.

Driven From Home.

"Did you hear that the daughter of that rich man in the next street had been driven from home?"

"No! When did it happen?"

"Just after she got into the carriage."

No Wonder.

Jack—Yes, poor John may have had his faults, but his heart was on the right side."

Wagge—Is it possible? No wonder he died.
